Our Cover
The Woman at the Well by Diego Rivera (1886-1957) a prominent Mexican painter. His large frescoes helped establish the Mexican mural movement in Mexican art. Rivera was born in Guanajuato, Mexico, to a well-to-do family. He was said to have Converso ancestry (having ancestors who were forced to convert from Judaism to Catholicism). Rivera wrote in 1935: "My Jewishness is the dominant element in my life.”
